

Small Firm Attention and Big Firm Results After a Car Crash Ask most people what they want from a lawyer after a crash and the answer comes in two parts. They want someone who actually picks up the phone. And they want someone who can stand toe to toe with a large insurance company. Too often people assume they have to pick one. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC built its approach around the idea that you shouldn't have to, and the firm puts it simply: small local firm attention with big firm results. The small firm side is about people. Clients work with the same team from start to finish, so the folks who took your first call are still around when your case closes. You can reach the firm 24/7 by phone, email or text, which matters when you're stuck at home after a wreck on Wurzbach Parkway and a question pops into your head at 10 at night. Reviews often mention regular update calls and staff who check in after therapy sessions. That kind of steady contact is hard to fake, and it keeps a stressful process from feeling like a black hole. The big firm side is about experience and resources. Alex Aguirre has more than 20 years of personal injury work behind him and is licensed in federal courts throughout Texas. He's a member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and has been named to Super Lawyers every year since 2020. The firm's published results include a $2.0 million wrongful death trucking accident recovery, a $1.5 million trucking accident recovery and a $900,000 warehouse work injury recovery. Past results do not guarantee future outcomes, and every case turns on its own facts, but those numbers show the firm is prepared to take on serious claims against well funded defendants.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC | 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 | (210) 922-0808

For a San Antonio car accident lawyer, that combination shows up in everyday decisions. It means taking time to talk with your surgeons and doctors so treatment plans match the injuries. It means knowing whether SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office wrote your crash San Antonio personal injury car lawyer report, and how to get the CR-3 quickly when you were hit near Castle Hills or on the way to the South Texas Medical Center. And it means not rushing a settlement just to close a file. Texas uses modified comparative fault, so insurers love to argue you share the blame. A team with depth can push back on that with evidence. You don't pay anything up front. The firm works on contingency, so there's no fee unless they win, and the first consultation is free. Call (210) 922-0808 to talk with the team today, or stop by the Napier Park office at 3015 Napier Pk, just off Loop 1604 near Rogers Ranch and Shavano Park.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC Address: 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 Phone: (210) 922-0808 FAQ About San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer How much do lawyers take from a car accident settlement in Texas? Most Texas car accident lawyers work on contingency, so their fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC handles San Antonio car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in your written fee agreement before any work starts, so there are no surprises. How hard is it to win a car accident lawsuit? It depends on the evidence. Clear fault, a CR-3 crash report, photos, witnesses and consistent medical records make a claim much stronger. Founder Alex Aguirre spent the start of his career defending insurance companies, so the firm knows the arguments insurers use to deny or shrink claims and prepares for them early. Most cases settle, but the team is ready to go to trial when an offer is unfair. What is my San Antonio car accident claim worth? No honest lawyer can put a number on your claim without looking at the details. Value depends on your medical bills, future treatment, lost wages, the severity of your injuries and how clear the other driver's fault is. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews all of this in a free consultation and explains what compensation may be realistic for your situation. What should I do after a car accident in San Antonio? Check everyone for injuries, call 911 and get the report number from SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office. Take photos of the vehicles and the scene, get witness details and see a doctor quickly, even if you feel fine. Then call The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC at (210) 922-0808, which is open 24 hours a day. Can I recover compensation if I was partially at fault? Yes, in many cases. Texas uses modified comparative fault, so you can still recover as long as you are less than 51 percent responsible, although your award is reduced by your share of the blame. Insurers often push extra fault onto injured drivers after crashes at busy spots like Loop 1604 and I-10, and the firm works to challenge that with evidence. Should I talk to the other driver's insurance company? It's best not to give a recorded statement before you get legal advice. Adjusters can use casual comments like "I'm fine" to argue your injuries aren't serious. Alex Aguirre knows these tactics from his years on the defense side, and his team can handle insurer calls for you from the first day. How long do I have to file a car accident claim in Texas? Texas generally gives you two years from the date of the crash to file a personal injury lawsuit, and two years from the date of death for a wrongful death claim. Some claims, such as those involving a government vehicle, can have earlier notice requirements. Calling The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC early gives the team time to gather evidence before it disappears. What compensation can I get after a San Antonio car wreck? You may be able to recover current and future medical costs, lost wages and earning capacity, property damage, pain and suffering, mental anguish and physical impairment. In cases of gross negligence, such as some drunk driving crashes, Texas law may also allow exemplary damages. The firm reviews every category so nothing gets left out of your claim. What if the driver who hit me has no insurance? Your own policy may still protect you. Texas insurers must offer uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and personal injury protection, and PIP is included unless you rejected it in writing. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews your policy for free and pursues every available source of recovery, including in hit and run cases. Do I need a lawyer for a minor car accident? If nobody was hurt and the damage is small, you may not need one. If you have pain, missed work or the insurer is disputing fault, a free consultation is worth the call. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC will tell you plainly whether your San Antonio crash needs legal help. How long does a car accident settlement take in Texas? Simple claims can settle in a few months, while serious injury cases often take longer because you need to finish treatment before the full cost is known. Clients of the firm often mention regular update calls from paralegal Jackie and case manager Nicole, so you're never left guessing where your case stands. Does the firm help Spanish-speaking clients? Yes. Hablamos Espanol, and the firm offers language assistance so Spanish-speaking clients can discuss their case comfortably. Founder Alex Aguirre is a San Antonio native and a former president of the Mexican American Bar Association. Call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation in English or Spanish.
