Manufactured Homes vs. Mobile Homes vs. Modular Homes

Distinguishing manufactured homes from mobile homes and modular homes can be confusing. Even though all are built in a factory, each has key differences:

- **Mobile homes:** Built on wheels in the past, mobile homes generally look dated and are rarely found among new homes, particularly in Columbia, TN.

- **Modular homes:** These are made in modules, meet FHA/local codes, and are joined on-site, leading to higher prices than manufactured homes.

- **Manufactured homes:** Built on steel chassis to HUD code and with modern materials, they often are the most affordable option compared to modular or site-built homes.

Excellent manufactured homes from UMH Properties often outperform traditional homes in terms of energy efficiency and overall quality.
