

A wedding day runs smoothest when vendors work well together, and Annie Paige Photography has experience coordinating closely with videographers, planners, and other vendors on site. Past clients have specifically noted how well Annie worked alongside their videographer throughout the day, an important detail for couples hiring both. That kind of vendor coordination helps avoid overlapping shots or missed moments when multiple professionals are documenting the same event.

Annie Paige Photography | 59 State St, Portland, ME 04101 | (207) 841-4333

Years of experience across more than one hundred weddings has meant working alongside countless other vintage style wedding photographers Portland vendors and venues. Call (207) 841-4333 to discuss vendor coordination for your wedding day.