Fly more, worry less!

If you're planning to fly with Frontier, understanding Frontier Airlines baggage fees before booking can help you avoid unexpected airport charges. Since Frontier follows a low-cost model, baggage is not included with most fares. The amount you pay depends on when you purchase your bag, your route, and the size of your luggage.

Frontier Airlines Baggage Fees Explained

The Frontier Airlines baggage fees vary based on the time of purchase:

- Personal Item: Free (must fit under the seat)
- Carry-On Bag: Usually starts around $39–$79 when purchased online and may cost more at the airport.
- Checked Bag: Generally starts around $34–$79 for the first checked bag, depending on the destination and booking stage.
- Oversized or overweight bags incur additional charges.

Buying baggage during booking is typically the cheapest option. Waiting until airport check-in or the boarding gate often results in significantly higher fees.

Frontier Airlines Baggage Policy You Should Know

The Frontier Airlines baggage policy is designed to keep base fares low while allowing travelers to pay only for the services they need.

Here are the key points of the Frontier baggage policy:

- One personal item is included with every ticket.
- Carry-on and checked bags require an additional fee.
- Bag fees vary by route and travel season.
- Weight and size limits apply to all checked baggage.
- Special items like sports equipment may have separate fees.

Reviewing the baggage policy of Frontier Airlines before your trip can help you pack smarter and reduce travel costs.

Frontier Airlines Baggage Limits and Size

Knowing the Frontier Airlines baggage limits is essential before packing.

Personal Item

- Maximum size: 14 x 18 x 8 inches

Carry-On Bag

The Frontier Airlines baggage size for carry-on luggage is:

- Maximum dimensions: 24 x 16 x 10 inches (including wheels and handles)
- Maximum weight: No official weight limit, but passengers must safely place the bag in the overhead bin.

Checked Bag

- Maximum dimensions: 62 linear inches (length + width + height)
- Maximum weight: 40 pounds (18 kg)

Exceeding these limits may result in overweight or oversized baggage fees.

Tips to Save on Frontier Airlines Baggage Fees

To avoid paying more than necessary:

- Purchase baggage while booking your ticket.
- Travel with only a free personal item if possible.
- Measure your luggage before leaving home.
- Weigh checked bags to stay within Frontier's limits.

- Compare bundle options if you plan to bring multiple bags.
